1 Plaintiff has filed multiple cases in this Court. The policy of the Clerk's Office with 2 regard to checks received from the prison is as follows: When the Clerk's Office receives a 3 check from the prison for a particular case for which the filing fee has already been paid in full,
4 the Clerk's Office applies that check to payment of filing fees in the litigant's other cases. No 5 refund is issued to the litigant until the filing fees for all his cases are paid in full.
